9) Any Other Business:

*L. Hope-Frost
5th Sept 05*

- a) It was pointed out that there were some patches along the new road surface, which had not been done properly. The clerk was asked to telephone Warks CC at Wellesbourne to ask them to fill the gaps.
- b) A copy of the minutes should be given to Alysoun Glasspool for the Compton Chronicle.
- c) A letter had been received from Stratford DC promising 6 cuts to the grass next summer.
- d) The results of the Best Kept Village Competition had been received. Avon Dassett had won a silver, however the comments were felt to be unreasonable and no marks had been given for the War Memorial or Reading Room. The clerk was asked to write a letter to Jenny Cranfield asking for an explanation.
- e) The table from the Reading Room had been repaired and returned.
- f) Instead of kerbing a suggestion was made to put up chunky bollards to stop the verges being eroded.
- g) The clerk announced she would be resigning after the September meeting.

10) To Receive Questions from the Public: None
