Chairman's Report:

The Chairman extended thanks to all the Parish Councils for their valued contribution over the year. Thanks were also given to the outgoing clerk Mary Edgington for all her help and to Cllr C. Williams for his valued input. Improvements over the year included the Village Welcome Pack, which was a great success as were the beautiful post cards printed from the original watercolours by Mary Edgington. The village won the Best Kept Small Village section of the Southam District. A note of thanks was given to Mick and Mary for their large contribution to this.

A bouquet of flowers was given to Sue Robertson as a note of thanks for her efforts in the Post Office. A welcome was made to Larry Chenery, the new Post Master, and Parishioners were asked to show their support.

A fantastic Christmas Carol Service had been held in the redundant church starting with drinks at Linda and Kerry's followed by a gathering in the Reading Room. Thanks were given to Linda and Kerry for their hospitality. More recently a Baroque music evening was also a great success.

The Village Welcome Pack was successfully completed and well received, thanks were expressed to all who contributed, especially Deborah.

A note of thanks were given to Kevin Martin for his efforts in getting the church clock going and it's continued ringing.

The village fete was, yet again, successful and thanks were given to the fete committee for their superb efforts.

The only low note was the playground, but in defence, it should be noted that in the minutes last August the ground had been so wet and had only just recovered.
