

South Warwickshire Rural Crime Coordinators Newsletter July 2016

Events With the run up to summer, Rural Crime Coordinators Robert Church & Lucy Lambert have been busy in South Warwickshire.

Chedham's Yard Cycle Marking

Working with Eric Lawley of Wellesbourne Neighbourhood Watch, 10 cyclists attended to take advantage of having their bikes registered

Kenilworth Show Crime Prevention Stand at the show saw a huge footfall of between 750-1000 residents. Warwickshire Rural Watch & Horse Watch was promoted along with advice on wildlife crime.

Baddesley Clinton BBC Antiques Roadshow

In early June the Coordinators & Martyn Stephens (Rural Crime Lead at Warwickshire County Council) met with over 300 residents to provide advice on home security and Rural Watch.

Operation Leviathan Providing advice to families around general home security & raising awareness around crimes on waterways. Stratford & Warwick Safer Neighbourhood Teams (SNTs) joined forces with The Angling Trust & Environment Agency along with Robert Church at Kingfisher Pools in Warwick.

July Events: Keep up to date with events in your area by following the Coordinators on Twitter @SDC_Safer

6th & 7th Evening Property Marking Event with Warwick Rural East SNT at Baginton.

15th July Neighbourhood Watch Stand at Stratford Farmers Market.

16th Canal Watch Event Warwick Rural East SNT

19th & 20th Evening Property Marking Event at Radford Semele with Warwick Rural East SNT

Twitter Themes:

As part of our social media campaign we are tweeting crime prevention advice, tips and facts every day.

July's Twitter Themes

Allotment Crime – top tips

Narrow Boat Crime - staying safe in your floating home

Shed Security - keeping your valuables safe and at the end of the month we will be focussing on cycle crime. Stratford SNT have some

BikeRegister events being run by PCSO Bes-Jeary on 9th Bancroft Gardens & 23rd Ken Kennett Centre follow Stratford SNT on Twitter @Stratfordcops